PERSONO NON GRATA

Colored Brother Not Much in Evidence at Roanoke.

Lewis For Governor by Acclamation Is Plan of Lily White Gathering—Democratic Discord Makes G. O. P. Hopeful.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
ROANOKE, VA., Aug. 8.—Secretary L. M. Shaw arrived from Washington at 9:15, and was met by a delegation of business and professional men of this city and a large number of citizens and members of the convention, who escorted him to Hotel Roanoke, where he had an informal reception and shook hands with several hundred people.

The greatest enthusiasm prevails and there is a general feeling of harmony. The opposition to Judge Lewis is dwindling and it is generally conceded that he will be nominated on the first ballot tomorrow. The health of A. P. Gillispie, of Tazewell, who had been slated for attorney general, may cause him to refuse the nomination, and in this event John C. Blair, of Wythe, is being urged by the Ninth district delegates.

There is a considerable difference over the nomination for lieutenant governor, and this looks like the only contest that will come up tomorrow. The Rockingham delegates, backed by S. Brown Allen, are starting a boom for John Acker, while the majority of the other delegates favor Jacob Yost for the position.

The recent dissatisfaction in Democratic ranks, caused, it is said, by the attacks made by Willard upon Swanson, has had a tendency to instill a more hopeful feeling among the leaders, and it is an open secret that the Republicans of the State are relying upon the split in the Democratic party on account of the primary to elect their man.

The absence of negro delegates is very marked. Thus far there are none in evidence and they seem to have been discarded entirely wherever possible.

J. Lucian Gleaves, the temporary chairman, pleaded for harmony and asked for a square deal at the polls. Every mention of President Roosevelt's name was wildly cheered.

Committees were then appointed and a recess was taken until 8 o'clock this evening. When the convention reassembled the reports of the credentials and permanent organization committees were received and adopted.

D. Laurence Groner, of Norfolk, was chosen permanent chairman and assumed the gavel. After Mr. Groner's speech of acceptance, Congressman Slomp, the only Republican congressman from Virginia, was introduced to the convention and he, in turn, introduced Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, who had been invited to come to Roanoke to address the convention. Mr. Shaw was greeted with a storm of cheers. At the conclusion of Mr. Shaw's address the convention adjourned until tomorrow morning, when the committee on resolutions will report.

Son of Prince Henry XXVI., of Rouss. Nineteen Others Dead.
BERLIN, Aug. 8.—Henry Palas, Count Von Plauen, son of Prince Henry XXVI., of Rouss, belonging to a collateral branch of the young Reuss line, was among twenty persons killed in a railroad collision yesterday between Spremberg and Goerlitz, Prussia.
